EXPRESS MESSENGER ROBBED

(By Associated Press)
Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 11.—Five men who boarded a south-bound passenger train on the Mississippi Valley Railroad, as it was leaving the yard here early today, held up the express messenger and his assistant, secured several packages and escaped when the train was stopped at West Junction in response to a telephone message from a yard master who saw the men board the train. The messenger and his assistant were found lying on the floor bound. One of the stolen packages was shipped by a Memphis jewelry concern. Posses began search.

STOPPED RUNAWAY.

A horse attached to a grocery delivery wagon took flight on Congress street shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday morning and started down the street at a lively pace. The animal was stopped by John G. Parsons before he had done any damage.

An ideal Saturday for people to do their shopping, but there has been more calls for ice cream sodas than for overcoats and other heavy clothing.

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, Oct. 11.—Leading flyers in the transcontinental airplane race between Mineola, New York, and San Francisco, expected to complete the first half of their journey today, the fourth of the competition, thus marking an epoch in aviation in America.
Lt. B. W. Maynard, leading west-bound aviator in the race, left Salsboro, Utah, at 6.17 this morning, bound for San Francisco. In the van of the east-bound flyers, for today and the closer rivals to Lt. Maynard, Capt. L. H. Smith, Lt. E. C. Kiel and Major C. Spatz, left Bryan, Ohio, for Cleveland this morning. Major Spatz reached Cleveland at 8.10 in a heavy rain and departed for Buffalo 45 minutes later. Lt. Kiel was close behind, reaching Cleveland at 8.34 and leaving for Buffalo at 9.05.
Capt. Smith lost his way in the heavy rain seven miles south of Cleveland and broke his propeller and strut in making a forced landing. His machine struck a ditch and turned completely over. He planned to resume his journey as soon as repairs could be made.
Great care is being exercised by commanding officers at the various control points to safeguard the flyers in the contest so far productive of five deaths and a number of minor incidents among the original sixty-two starters.

LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE IS EXTENDING

(By Associated Press)
New York, Oct. 11.—Extension to the countrywide traffic at every Atlantic point of the longshoremen's strike which has completely paralyzed New York harbor, appeared inevitable today. John E. Riley, chairman of the committee directing the strike, announced that orders for such an extension had been issued, when the national adjustment commission of the United States shipping board refused to grant an increase in coastwise longshoremen's scale from 65c to $1.00 an hour.
The only apparent hope of averting a spread of the strike or of terminating the strike in New York lay in a meeting today of the strike committee with the national adjustment commission.
The coastwise longshoremen's strike, if made effective, it was stated, would add at least 15,000 men to the total number of strikers. Eight thousand of this number are employed in New York and 8,000 in other ports including Boston.
New York, Oct. 11.—A committee representing the striking longshoremen today flatly rejected a demand from the War Department that four freight ships and six passenger ships now on their way to New York be handled.
The Department had announced through Mr. Ripley that it intended that these ships should be handled. Mr. Ripley asked the committee if it would take care of the ships and received a flat refusal.
Col. E. M. House was aboard one of the ships the War Department wanted handled. The committee offered to handle his mail and baggage but declined to work the other ships. The reason the strike committee gave for its decision was that to accede to the request would be discrimination against a majority of the strikers, that while several thousand were at work on the ten vessels the others would be walking the streets or "starving," as one of them expressed it.
Chairman Ripley emphasized the claim that the work was a patriotic duty. John Riley, chairman of the committee and spokesman for the men, in reply declared the longshoremen during the war had given most convincing evidence of their patriotism. In the present instance he declared it was impossible for them to comply with the request.
Many local people are to pass the week-end and holiday out of town.

DRIVE FOR NAVY ENLISTMENT UNDERWAY

Boston, October 10.—Uncle Sam's drive to secure 100,000 men for the Navy will be in full swing within a few days. It is a countrywide campaign. What is being done in Boston and elsewhere on the Atlantic coast to make known to American boys the advantages which the Navy offers as a way of education, sightseeing and compensation, is being done also in the corn belt of the Middle West, on the slopes of the Rockies, along the base of the Pacific and in all other sections of the country. Here in Boston preparations for handling the rush of recruits are being made at the Navy recruiting station at 51 Cornhill.

At the recruiting station, a young man may become a member of the Navy in good and regular standing in not about half an hour. If his mind is made up to enlist when he appears here and he meets the requirements, he makes his application at a desk at which sits a warrant officer ready to give him any needed assistance. The card of application having been filled out, the applicant steps into an adjoining room. Here he undergoes the physical tests. It takes not more than fifteen minutes for the Navy Doctors to complete their examination if the applicant is physically acceptable. If he has a defect that necessitates his rejection, it is likely to be discovered in much less than a quarter of an hour.

The man who passes the physical test, before leaving the examination room has his finger prints taken that the Navy may have a means of identifying him, a system that may prove to be of as great a benefit to him as to the Navy in passing. It may be said that the United States Navy has the largest finger print collection in the world, something of which hindersmen or the most part are ignorant. But here there are a lot of interesting things about the Navy that the handsomen have not discovered.

DOVER MAN IN THE RAID.

Samuel English of Dover was one of the six men figuring in the arrest made at Comblation Park, Medford, by the police on complaint of the Watch and Ward Society for promoting a lottery and betting on horse racing. English was held in bail of $1,000.

BUY YOUR COAL NOW

Harry A. Garfield, U. S. Fuel Administrator, says: "Buy now—in August or the autumn will be too late. A big coal shortage is coming. Thousands of homes are going back to Europe. Coal production has fallen off considerably and a shortage of many million tons looks probable. My advice to consumers is to buy NOW while they can get a selection and DELIVERY. "I feel bound to say that, as I see the situation, we are likely to experience a coal famine to the fall."

Walker T. Hines, Director Gen. of U. S. Railroad Administration, says: "Unless the consumer buys his coal this summer he is going to find it difficult to get it this Fall and Winter. I predict a shortage of cars because of reputation of business in general, with which the coal industry must share transportation facilities. There are plenty of cars today and consumers of coal are urged to use them while they can get them."

COMMITTEE. c-h 21.

WHAT IS FLOWERLAND?

The committee having charge of the arrangements for the great K. of P. bazaar which is to be held at Freeman's hall, Oct. 15, 16 and 17 desired to place before the public something unique in the way of hall decorations. With this end in view they made arrangement with the representative of one of the fair companies to come here and meet them. This representative brought with him miniature fair settings and the committee selected Flowerland as the most beautiful and pleasing. Flowerland represents a flowery dell and this with over 300 colored lights makes one of the most attractive fair settings ever seen in this city. No one should miss seeing this vision of fairyland as this alone is worth the price of admission. Flowerland will be in full bloom, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings, Oct. 15, 16 and 17. Don't miss it.
